

THE RELIGIOUS CENSUS

House-to-house Visitation Tomorrow from 2 to 3 P. M.—Each Family Requested to Have Report Ready.

The house-to-house visitation and religious census will be made, as advertised, tomorrow afternoon from 2 to 3 o'clock. All families are requested to be at home that hour or have some member of the family there to give the information asked for. The visitors, assigned and unassigned, are requested to meet the superintendents and pastors at Carnegie Hall promptly at 1:15 p. m., when final arrangements will be made, stationery furnished and final instructions given. Let every visitor be there and be on time. Some additional assignments will be made and everyone put to work. The visitors will go from the hall directly to their respective districts and on finishing the work will return to the hall to make their reports before going elsewhere.

The Houston & Texas Central railroad has been made a dividing line between east and west districts. Each committee will begin at the railroad and go thence to the suburbs of town, working both sides of the street and the houses facing east or west on the cross street to the right. For instance, the committee on West Anderson street will work the houses between Anderson and Mosely, in addition to both sides of Anderson; and the committee on East Anderson will work the houses between Anderson and Burleson, in addition to both sides of Anderson. Visitors must report at headquarters before starting out. Further instructions will be given there.

The superintendents have endeavored to so arrange the districts that every house would be visited, and anyone whose home is not in any of the districts named will confer a favor upon the church by notifying any of the superintendents or pastors.

Following is a list of assignments made to date:

West Jefferson and territory lying north—Mrs. A. M. Rhodes and Mrs. J. J. Ray.
West Webster and West Jackson—Miss Clara Wetter and Mrs. S. W. Buchanan.

C. G. WALKER FOR RE-ELECTION.

Mr. C. G. Walker authorizes The Eagle to place his name before the voters of Bryan as a candidate for reelection to the office of alderman, subject to the city democratic primary.

Mr. Walker needs no introduction at the hands of The Eagle. He was reared in Bryan and is well known to everybody. Mr. Walker is at present a member of the board of aldermen, having been elected during last year to fill out the unexpired term of Mr. J. E. Covey, resigned.

Since his election Mr. Walker has made a close study of every phase of the city's affairs and has cast his vote on every proposition in the way which he thought would make for progress and help to make a "Greater Bryan."

If re-elected he promises the same careful and patient study of the affairs of the city, and to conscientiously discharge his every duty to the best of his ability.

The Eagle submits his claims to the voters of the city.

"Hans Hanson" at the Colonial Last Evening.

"Hans Hanson" was the play presented at the Colonial theater last evening and the usual large audience was in attendance. The show was highly entertaining and the novelty specialties introduced throughout the production won merited applause.

The Bull of Perillus.

Perillus of Athens is said to have invented for Phalaris, tyrant of Agrigento, 570 B. C., a brazen bull which opened on the side to admit victims who were to be roasted by the fire which was built underneath. The dying groans of the sufferers resembled closely the roaring of a mad bull. Phalaris greatly admired the invention and by way of test roasted the inventor first. Later the populace rose in rebellion and burned Phalaris.

Progress.

"I notice a lady has received by wireless a prescription from her doctor at sea."

"What was it?"

"Told her to brace up and she would be O. K."

"Well, well. Here's a case of drugless treatment by wireless prescription for a sickless illness. What an age we live in!"—Philadelphia Ledger.

Small Things.

We are too fond of our own will. We want to be doing what we fancy mighty things, but the great point is to do small things, when called to them, in a right spirit.—E. Cecil.

Marvelous.

He—There is no doubt that nature's works are indeed marvelous. She—Aren't they? Once fancy, even the finest insect has its Latin name.—London M. A. P.

A Famous Parlor Maid.

Sydney Smith, the famous author and wit, in describing his early married life in a Yorkshire parsonage told how he made a butler out of a village girl.

"A manservant was too expensive, so I caught up a little garden girl made like a milestone, christened her Bunch, put a napkin in her hand and made her my butler. The girls taught her to read, Mrs. Sydney to wait, and I undertook her morals. Bunch became the best butler in the county."

But Bunch was not merely butler—she was valet too. A visitor thus describes her:

"Coming down one morning, I found Bunch pacing up and down the passage before her master's door in a state of great perturbation."

"What is the matter, Bunch?"

"Oh, ma'am, I can't get no peace of mind till I've got master shaved, and he's so late this morning!"

"This 'getting master shaved' consisted in making ready for him with a large painter's brush as big as Mambino's helmet, which she always considered as the most important avocation of the morning."

When the Danes Were Skinned.

In former times the Danes used to sail up the mouths of the English rivers to pillage the churches. When they were caught they were skinned and their skins nailed to the door of the church they attacked. In course of time all the exposed portions would peel off, but that covered by the nail would be protected and thus bear testimony to the cruelty of the ancient Englishmen. In the London College of Surgeons may be seen three specimens of human skin bearing labels such as this: "Portion of human skin said to be that of a Dane from the door of a church at Hadstock, in Essex." A second specimen is from Copford, in Essex, and a third from the north door of Worcester cathedral. Such fragments of sacrilegious Danish hide have been found on doors in Westminster abbey.

Were Kind to Him.

A West Philadelphia man who was severely injured some months ago when his horse took fright at an automobile and bolted, upsetting the carriage, has only recently been released from the hospital. He is well now and in the best of spirits notwithstanding the fact that severe operations were necessary in order to save his life.

A few days after he left the hospital a friend asked him if he had been kindly treated.

"Oh, yes," he said. "Oh, yes, indeed! Considering the fact that they amputated both my feet, removed my collar bone, cut off my left thumb, trepanned my brain, took out a piece of my underjaw and sawed my left hip bone in two, I got along very nicely. They were most kind to what was left of me."—Philadelphia Press.

Beaconsfield the Dandy.

The dandyism Benjamin Disraeli affected in his dress is the subject of many pen pictures in Monty Penny's "Life of Beaconsfield." At the age of nineteen he is described as wearing a black velvet suit with ruffles and black stockings with red clocks. A later portrait, in 1830, comes from a friend's diary, which has the following entry: "March 20.—B. D. to dine with me. He came up Regent street when it was crowded in his blue surcoat, a pair of military light blue trousers, black stockings with red stripes and shoes. 'The people,' he said, 'quite made way for me as I passed. It was like the opening of the Red sea, which I now perfectly believe from experience. Even well dressed people stopped to look at me.'"

Haroun-al-Raschid to Charlemagne.

The only sovereign of the time who could compare with Charlemagne was the famous Haroun-al-Raschid who was the head of the Moslem world sent the keys of Jerusalem to the head of the Christian world, besides a striking clock, an ape and an elephant—things which impressed the imagination of those times as typifying that Charlemagne had been invested with the sovereignty of Jerusalem and the lordship of the world.—T. A. Cook in "Old Provence."

Where Once a Home Stood.

And what is more melancholy than the old apple trees that linger about the spot where once stood a homestead, but where there is now only a ruined chimney rising out of a grassy and weed grown cellar? They offer their fruit to the wayfarer—apples that are bitter-sweet with the mornal of time's vicissitude.—Hawthorne.

Charity.

When thy brother has lost all that he ever had and lies languishing, and even gasping under the utmost extremities of poverty and distress, dost thou think to lick him whole again only with thy tongue?—South.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION.

THE STATE OF TEXAS—To the Sheriff or any Constable of Brazos County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon the unknown heirs of each of the following named persons: Warren Smith, William Foley and Thomas Lassiter, the heirs and legal representatives of each of said unknown heirs, by making publication of this citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the Twentieth Judicial district; but if there be no newspaper published in said judicial district, then in a newspaper published in the nearest district to said district, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Brazos county, to be held at the courthouse thereof, in the city of Bryan, on the first Monday in March, A. D. 1911, the same being the 6th day of March, A. D. 1911, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 6th day of February, A. D. 1911, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 6149, wherein J. L. Fountain is plaintiff, and the unknown heirs of each of the above named persons, are defendants, and said petition alleging in substance as follows: That the plaintiff, J. L. Fountain, is a resident of Brazos county, Texas, and has his domicile in said Brazos county, Texas, and that the residences and names of all of the said defendants are unknown to the said plaintiff; that on or about the 26th day of May, A. D. 1902, the said plaintiff purchased of and from S. S. Kennedy of Brazos county, Texas, the hereinafter described tract of land, and that since having purchased the same the said plaintiff has had quiet and peaceable and adverse possession of the same, until the filing of this suit, and for a period of about twenty years prior to the date of his said purchase of said land the said S. S. Kennedy had owned and occupied the same as a homestead, and had had exclusive, and peaceable and adverse possession of the same from the year 1886 until he delivered such possession to the said plaintiff; that at some time prior to the purchase of said land by the said S. S. Kennedy, Warren Smith, William Foley and Thomas Lassiter had each owned the same, but that none of the above deeds or monuments of title were ever placed upon the records of deeds of Brazos county, Texas. The tract of land above referred to is described by metes and bounds as follows: All that certain tract or parcel of land lying and being situated in Brazos county, Texas, and being a part of a survey patented to C. C. Seal, assignee of Thomas Yates, and more particularly described as follows: Beginning at the west corner of the Thomas Yates survey of 279 acres, a stake, from which a P. O. 12 in. dia. brs. N. 11 W. 15 varas, and a double B. J. brs. N. 70 E. 16 varas; thence N. 45 E. 452 varas and corner, a stake, from which a P. O. 15 inches in dia. brs. N. 34 E. 11 varas, and a P. O. 12 ins. in dia. brs. S. 10 W. 10 varas; thence S. 45 E. 927 varas and corner, a stake in John Williams league line, from which a P. O. 15 ins. in dia. brs. N. 2 E. 141 1/2 varas, and a P. O. 10 ins. in dia. brs. N. 83 E. 9 varas; thence S. 45 W. with Williams league line 487 varas, to the original corner of said 279 acre survey, a stake, from which a P. O. 18 ins. in dia. brs. S. 33 E. 17 1/2 varas, and a P. O. 12 ins. in dia. brs. N. 77 E. 10 1/2 varas; thence N. 45 W. 927 varas to the place of beginning; That the fact that all of the above named transfers appear in his deed of conveyance from S. S. Kennedy, and that none of the said deeds appear of record in deed records of Brazos county, Texas, creates a cloud upon the title to said land, plaintiff shows that he has sought diligently for the said Warren Smith, William Foley and Thomas Lassiter, for the purpose of securing from them such deeds and conveyances as are necessary for the purpose of removing said cloud from said title, but that he has been unable to find either of said parties or their heirs at law. Plaintiff prays that the defendants and their unknown heirs be cited by publication to answer his petition, and that he have judgment removing the cloud from the title to said land, and vesting the title in him, the said plaintiff, for costs of suit, and for general and equitable relief.

Herein fall not, but have before said court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness, J. W. Barron, Clerk of the District Court of Brazos County.

Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Bryan, Texas, this 6th day of February, A. D. 1911.

[Seal] J. W. BARRON, Clerk District Court Brazos County.

INDIGESTION

Cured on Money Back.

Don't worry a minute longer; it's easy to get rid of indigestion nowadays. So if you have gastritis, catarrh of the stomach or simple fermentation of food, cheer up; for E. J. Jenkins has a prescription called MI-O-NA that turns old stomachs into sweet ones in a few days or money back.

There's happy days ahead for you and for your poor old flabby, tired out stomach if you won't be obstinate. Just lay down 50c and say, "I want a box of MI-O-NA tablets." They are made from the formula of the most successful prescription for indigestion, catarrh of the stomach and all stomach distress ever known.

Take one or two tablets with or after meals for a few days and then if you don't agree with us that MI-O-NA is a marvelous prescription you can have your money back. We'll leave it to your good sense of fairness whether that's a square deal or not.

MI-O-NA stomach tablets promptly relieve belching, heaviness, pain in stomach, heartburn, sour stomach, foul breath, coated tongue, dizziness, nervousness, sick headache and sleeplessness. MI-O-NA is sold by leading druggists everywhere, and by E. J. Jenkins.

WHEN HER BACK ACHES

Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away.

Bryan women know how the aches and pains that come when the kidneys fail make life a burden. Backache, hip pains, headaches, dizzy spells, all tell of sick kidneys and warn you of the stealthy approach of diabetes, dropsy and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills permanently cure all these disorders.

Can Bryan sufferers desire stronger proof than this woman's words? Mrs. W. H. Ely, of Hearne, Texas, says: "I was in poor health for a good many years. I suffered severely from backache, and although I used a number of remedies, I was unable to find relief. I had about given up hope of ever becoming better when a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I at once procured a box and began their use in accordance with the directions. I am now feeling better in every way and consequently do not hesitate to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to other kidney sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

TO THE VOTERS OF BRYAN TEXAS.

Some of my friends have suggested to me that I might be elected City Secretary this spring. I have no desire or intention of entering into politics, but heeding the solicitations of friends, I hereby announce for the position, subject to the action of the democratic primary February 28.

My Platform.

I promise if elected I will have no other employment and will be in the office every day while I hold it, giving my best personal attention to every detail, and will keep every item in connection with the office up to the moment at all times. I submit that no one else could do more.

My Argument.

I have lived in Bryan more than ten years. I have worked every day. I have paid my debts. I have given liberally of my limited means to churches, schools and to charities and benevolence.

I have had much experience in the duties of this office and thoroughly understand every duty in connection with it.

I have no words except words of kindness and commendation for each of the others who have announced for this position.

It is impossible at present for me to make a personal canvass. You all know me. If you elect me I will appreciate it and will do my full duty, as I here promised.
